ADAPTIVE SECURITY FOR RISK MANAGEMENT STRATEGIES

Presidio's full-lifecycle solutions grow with expanding vulnerabilities, evolving threats, and business needs.

Hackers have emerged into a multi-trillion dollar industry, ranging from simple un-sophisticated attacks to elaborate programs, resulting in devastating business consequences. Today, cyber-crime damages represents one of the greatest transfers of economic wealth in history.

With the technology disruption of Cloud, Internet of Things, mobile devices and social media, the cyber security attack surface has expanded and made it more difficult to protect an organization. An expanding attack surface calls for better protection. Patches and network segmentation are no longer enough to safeguard data. In addition, regulatory and compliance requirements must be integrated into the new technology to meet current mandates. The top challenges to a risk management program include resource shortages, culture, strategy, roadmap, and budget planning.

Where do you start? - Presidio's Adaptive Security consultants can help.
