

INCIDENT RESPONSE (IR) AND PROACTIVE SERVICES RETAINER

Immediate access to top-tier IR and proactive services

IR AND PROACTIVE SERVICES RETAINER

Given today's evolving threat environment, an organization is likely to encounter a cyber incident and valuable time will be lost if proactive steps have not been taken to prepare for such an occurrence. By not taking the time to establish an incident response program and negotiate hourly rates, the organization will be left vulnerable, delaying its ability to respond adequately and begin mitigating the impact of an attack.

Too often, organizations focus only on preparations that help them "react" to an incident, failing to see that proactive services can help them improve their cybersecurity posture and reduce risk. Ideally, organizations should have access to a comprehensive range of proactive services, which can help them adapt to new threats. These services should provide flexibility, so organizations can tailor a program to fit their specific needs and mature their cybersecurity without breaking the budget.

CrowdStrike's Incident Response and Proactive Services Retainer ensures that an organization is prepared to react quickly and effectively to a cybersecurity incident and benefit from proactive services that reduce the risk of damaging incidents and breaches.
